

JANESVILLE GETS STATE CYCLE MEET

AN IMPORTANT RACING EVENT THIS SUMMER.

Will Be Held at Fair Grounds, and Will Either Be a Two or Three-Day Gathering—Will Bring Thousands of Strangers Here—Several Thousand Dollars in Prizes.

At Milwaukee yesterday afternoon at the annual meeting of the Board of Officers of the Wisconsin division, L. A. W., at the St. Charles hotel, Janesville was selected as the city for the next state meet.

The exact date of this important racing event, has not as yet been settled, but will be definitely decided at a meeting to be held later.

Attorney M. G. Jeffris, of this city, made an excellent speech giving reasons why Janesville should be chosen, and on the first formal ballot the plum was awarded to the Bower City.

The meet will be a two or three day event, and will be held at the fair grounds. Prizes to the amount of several hundred dollars will be hung up, and the fastest men in America will compete.

A Notable Event.

Both local railroads will run excursion trains from all sections of the state and northern Illinois, and providing that the weather is good it will mean the bringing of thousands of strangers into the city.

In some of the professional events, as high as $300 in cash prizes will be hung for one race, and this will be the means of bringing men here who will make the local track in time faster than two minutes.

Committees will soon be appointed here to start the work, and the citizens of the Bower City can at least figure on one great out door event for the coming summer. At yesterday's meeting Frank H. Harbach, of Milwaukee, was chosen official handicapper and J. B. Jones, of Racine, H. P. Andrae, of Milwaukee and L. E. Hall of Ripon, were chosen to represent the division at the national assembly at Providence next month.

How It Was Done

The meeting was called to order by Chief Consul Van Valkenburgh. Those present entitled to vote were Chief Consul Frank Van Valkenburgh, Secretary-Treasurer S. J. Ryan, Appleton; Vice Chief Consul Robert Clark, Chippewa Falls; L. E. Hall, Ripon, and H. P. Andrae, Louis Platon, Milwaukee, who also held proxies for some of the officers who could not attend. The meeting opened with ex-Chief Consul M. C. Rotter's report on the work during the past year. He referred to the falling off of membership, and said it was due to the war with Spain. The chairman of the Highway Improvement committee had mailed 25,000 good roads booklets at the expense of the government during the year.

Racing Board Report

The report of F. L. Schaller, former chairman of the Racing board, was read by S. J. Ryan. It recommended the appointment of F. G. Cramer, of Milwaukee, as chairman of the Racing board. A resolution from President I. B. Potter that local consulates be established was introduced by Mr. Ryan and adopted. The chief consul, F. B. Van Valkenburgh, then read his report. The report of the secretary-treasurer followed. It showed that the expenses of the division had been $1,279.59 during the past year. The receipts were $1,378.63, including a loan of $200 from the national body. He reported that the membership had fallen from 2,681 to 1,505 during the year. During the same period, 371 new members were admitted.

RAILROADS PAY THEIR JUST SHARE

CORPORATIONS IN WISCONSIN NOT DODGING TAXES.

There is No Means by Which They Can Evade the Burdens, if They Desired to Do So—Injustice Has Been Done the Corporations in the Past.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 17.—The report of the commission created two years ago by the legislature to investigate the railroads of Wisconsin was made public last night. The commission was composed of the attorney general, the secretary of state and state railroad commissioner.

The report says there was no evidence of any attempt on the part of the railroad companies to evade their share of the tax by falsification of their earnings or to conceal any of their business affairs from the commission.

The greater part of the report taken up with a review of the minority report of the special railroad committee of the legislature made two years ago. After criticizing that minority report, the new report describes the methods pursued by this commission. The roads investigated by the commission were: Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie; Illinois Central, Green Bay and Western; Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic; Keweenaw, Green Bay and Western; Eastern Railway of Minnesota; Wisconsin Central; Northern Pacific; Wisconsin Central lines; Chicago, Burlington and Northern; Chicago and Northwestern; Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

The earnings of the roads are apportioned among states, the report says, on a mileage basis, the earnings on a given shipment being divided among the states through which the shipment passes, according to the number of miles in each state covered in transit. This system resulted in far greater earnings for each mile in Illinois than in the other states. This is explained by the commission on the ground that nearly all the lines converging towards Chicago after entering Illinois join trunk lines, which leaves only a few miles of branch lines to reduce the average earnings of the big trunk lines.

Income Tax Bill in

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 17.—In the legislature bills have been introduced providing for a graduated income tax and for an inheritance tax and to prevent the consolidation of express offices in cities of the fourth class and larger. Also to require fire insurance companies to pay the full face of the policy in case of total loss. A futile attempt was made in the house to have a special committee investigate and report, with special reference to the value of all corporate and other property, and the estimated tax railroad, telegraph, express and telephone companies would pay under the Atkinson bill. This defeat of dilatory tactics is considered a decisive victory for the friends of this bill.

STAMPING OUT SEEDS OF DISEASE

AMERICAN GOVERNOR OF HAVANA DOING GOOD WORK.

Fifth of Every Kind Is Being Removed From the City, and Preparations Made for Better Drainage—Madrid Will Treat with Rebels for Release of Prisoners.

Havana, Jan. 17.—[Special]—The promise that an effort would be made to stamp out the germs of yellow fever in this city is already being redeemed, and the prospect is that even if the plague is not checked the city will show an improved sanitary condition in other respects. Under the direction of the American governor of the city a house to house inspection of the city has been undertaken, and memoranda made of needed improvements in the way of drains and receptacles for debris of every description. Wherever the occupants of a house have permitted filth to accumulate they have been ordered to clear it away forthwith. Some of the old residents regard this as an unwarrantable interference with their affairs, and at first refused to comply with the orders issued, but they were given to understand that these orders must be obeyed or the utmost penalty exacted, and they have done as they were commanded, although reluctantly. There is every indication that by the time of the next annual invasion of the yellow fever there will be little for the plague to feed upon, and consequently there will be a decreased mortality.

ED. CARMODY GETS LONG PRISON TERM

PLEADED GUILTY TO RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.

Judge Fifield Sentenced Him to Serve Two and a Half Years—Formerly Lived in St. Paul, Where His Father and a Brother Now Reside.

Edward Carmody, of Beloit, who was arrested in this city recently on a charge of having stolen goods on the night of January 1, from the merchant tailor establishment of C. W. Allen, in that city, and who has been resting in durance ville in this city since that date, changed his plea from that of not guilty to that of having accepted stolen goods, and appeared in the municipal court this morning to receive his sentence from Judge Fifield. The goods stolen were valued at $165, and there were two others implicated with Carmody in the theft.

When asked by Judge Fifield why sentence should not be pronounced upon him, he made a plea in his own behalf, stating that the recent arrest was the first that had occurred in his career; also that he had been a resident of Beloit for four months prior to his arrest, having come from the "saintly" city in our neighboring gopher state, where he has a widowed mother and a brother. He gave his age as twenty-two. All of this he evidently thought would sound sweet in the ears of the judge and cause him to deal tenderly in pronouncing sentence, but alas; the rogue's gallery only a photograph, which District Attorney Jackson had spied—turned the tide.

Judge Fifield weighed the matter carefully in his mind, and taking the facts into consideration, thought he was justified in pronouncing a sentence of two and one-half years at hard labor behind the prison walls of Waupun, the first two days of which time was to be spent in solitary confinement.

Magnolia.

Magnolia, Jan. 17.—Mary Jane Cochrane was born March 17, 1843, in Brooklyn, N. Y., was married to David A. Acheson, Oct. 30, 1862. There were six children born to them—William, Robert, Edward, Matilda, of Magnolia, and George, of Evansville, and Bertha, the youngest, who died three days before the mother. She was the eldest of a family of eight children, of whom four are still living. Mrs. Dolly Venable and Mr. Wallace Cochrane, of Janesville. James Cochrane, of Spring Valley, and Charles Cochrane, of Brooklyn, N. Y. She joined the Methodist church when a child. After her marriage she joined the Congregational church of which her husband was then a member. The church disbanding they both joined the Methodist church again. Mrs. Acheson attended the funeral of her daughter on the 10th inst., returning home seemingly in her usual health. At ten in the evening she visited the rooms of the two children at home, and finding them all right, retired for the night. At twelve o'clock she arose. Her husband asked her if she was sick. She complained of pain in her shoulder, nothing unusual for her. He bathed her shoulder. She then said she was all right and told him to return to his bed as he was so weary from caring for the poor, burned daughter. He refused to go and in ten minutes she was dead. Her husband, son, daughter and sister were with her until death claimed her for his own. All are nearly heartbroken at the terrible calamity that has befallen them. The whole community feel that they have met with a great loss, as Mrs. Acheson, although living for her family, was an excellent neighbor. Funeral services were held at the advent church on Thursday, Rev. Mr. Sewall officiating. The house was crowded. The remains were laid in the West cemetery beside the daughter. In death they were not separated. The afflicted family have the sympathy of all at this time of their greatest sorrow. Rock Prairie.

Rock Prairie, Jan. 17.—Valentine Bier delivered his '98 crop of tobacco Saturday at 5 cents. Will Lamb shipped a carload of cattle to Chicago last week. Wallace Lamb also shipped a carload of sheep. James McLean and Miss Sarah Logan, both of Rock Prairie, were married last Wednesday afternoon at the home of James McLean, by Rev. S. G. Huey. A number of friends and relatives were present. Rev. S. G. Huey and Elder D. J. McLean are delegates to the meeting of presbytery, which meets at Yorkville this week. Thomas Clark is storing his '98 crop of barley at the Bump elevator in Janesville awaiting a better price. A. J. Barlass is now seen driving a fine looking carriage horse. Mr. and Mrs. McKellop returned last week from a visit to their son Frank, who is engaged in the hardware business at Arlington, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Will Hadden are expected home today. They will be extended a hearty welcome by their many friends. Prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. Helen Brown, this evening. Jeannette Harvey, of Delavan, has been visiting her friend, Mrs. Peter Jameson. It is unnecessary to report the condition of our invalids, as last week's correspondent made special mention of them all. It would seem fitting if last week's jottings should apologize for the article appearing in last Wednesday's Gazette under the head of "Rock Prairie Jots." The would-be jokes of such a personal mention, all of which were untrue, seem almost an insult to the persons referred to. We assure the correspondent that his work was not appreciated, that he is evidently not of a literary turn of mind, and certainly has missed his calling.

Rock River.

Rock River, Jan. 17.—Mr. Lou Atherton is on the sick list. George Richel made a business trip to Janesville Friday. Mr. Watson Noyce and Miss Ella Maryott visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young, of Milton, Wednesday. Mrs. Rilda Hall is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Vincent. C. D. Balch sold a team to Joseph Vincent, Mable Green is working for Mrs. Anson Bliven, of Edgerton, this week. Avery Vincent and Harry Green are cutting ice for the Newville and Milton Junction creameries. Elmer and Minnie Crandall, of Milton Junction, were callers at Harry Schroeder's, Monday. Green & Olson, of Edgerton, put in N. M. Rose's well one day last week. Geo. Crandall, Carl Paul and Lottie Gray are attending Milton college this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green visited with friends in Edgerton, Saturday. Jennie Rose returned Wednesday from a week's visit with Mrs. T. V. Rogers, of Whitewater. There will be an oyster supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vincent Sabbath evening, Jan. 21. Everybody come. On account of the illness of the pastor, E. B. Saunders, of Milton, preached in the morning and evening at the S. D. Baptist church. Mrs. S. S. Pierce spent Thursday with Kittie Vincent. Maud Rose went to Whitewater Monday to visit relatives.

Footville.

Footville, Jan. 17.—The finest weather of the winter has been during the past week, but it brings too much sickness; and there are many cases of sickness in and about town, as well as the surrounding neighborhoods. Dr. S. W. Lacy is kept busy night and day nowadays. Clarence Baldridge is acting as hostler for Dr. Lacy. Prospects are good for better passenger train service at Footville. A week or two will tell the story. Mrs. H. S. Stevens is confined to the house with the grip. Mrs. J. A. Newell, who has pneumonia, is reported some better. County Superintendent W. M.

Ross, has two sick children. Mrs. Earnest Parmley, who has been very sick, is reported better. William J. Owen, one of Footville's earliest settlers, passed away at 2 o'clock a. m. Friday. The funeral was held at the Methodist church at 11 o'clock Sunday, where a large audience gathered to pay their respects to their highly esteemed friend and neighbor. Mr. Owen came from Orange county, New York, and settled at Footville in the early fifties. He was a few days over eighty-one years old at his death. The Temple Quartet, of Rockford, will give one of their popular up-to-date entertainments at Footville hall, Wednesday evening, Jan. 25. This is high priced talent for Footville. They appear under the auspices of M. W. of A. Camp 6. Tickets 25 and 35 cents, on sale at G. D. Silverthorn's, after Jan. 18. Come. Mrs. M. McCrear, of Austin, Ill., came to our village Saturday to attend the funeral of her father, W. J. Owen. Both tobacco warehouses started Monday with full force. About 75 per cent of farmers have sold their tobacco at an advance of price over last year. Mrs. Wm. Grundlach had the misfortune to fall and break her arm last week. Mrs. Clara Fisher is reported quite sick. Rev. Father Buckley preached his farewell sermon at the Catholic church Sunday. Father Smith is the incoming priest, and Mrs. O. W. Judkins arrived home from an extended visit in Minnesota, Saturday. S. J. Strong has his store lit with the celebrated gasoline lamps. Fisher, Dunbar and Wiggins shipped two cars stock Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Lowery spent Sunday at P. O. Wells. Rev. F. W. Mutchler, pastor of the Christian church, Footville, who went to Pardeeville to hold special services, is reported quite ill at that place. Strong & Owen have had five funerals in the past week. Don't forget to secure your reserved seats early for Temple Quartette concert. Mrs. Dr. Lacey and servant girl, Miss Dobson, are reported on the sick list, but improving. J. S. Hart and A. W. Buck, of Janesville, were in town Monday on business.

Johnstown Center.

Johnstown Center, Jan. 17.—The Union services closed last Sunday evening and we trust much good will result from these extra meetings. Mrs. Paynter and son, Will, visited friends at Oak hill farm Saturday until Sunday. Miss Ella Barker is sewing for her cousin, Carrie Johnson, this week. Miss Pearl Wheeler, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. Cowles, for the past few weeks, returned home Sunday. Mrs. Glyn's youngest child is quite sick with the grip. Miss Orta Gould is visiting friends at Sun Prairie. The second entertainment of the lecture course will given one week from next Wednesday evening, Jan. 25, by Rev. Enoch Perry. Subject, "The Battle of Gettysburg."

County Line.

Between Rock and Dane, Jan. 17.—Our tobacco growers are busy stripping tobacco again as the foggy weather of last week made the leaf in nice shape to handle and all of them who did not take it down before had a chance to do so now and most of them have had a chance to sell at reasonable prices. We learn that Mike Ford has refused 10 cents per pound for his crop of Cuba tobacco and seven cents per pound for the Spanish. Jens Jensen delivered his '97 crop in Edgerton Saturday. It was as good tobacco as was ever delivered. Our people were pleased to learn that Janes-

THE MAD MULLAH.

The mad mullah must not be taken too lightly. These fanatics of the orient from time immemorial have exercised enormous power over unthinking multitudes, and just as Solomon Eagle, in Ainsworth's romance, imparts his insane frenzy to thousands of his fellow-creatures in a wave of superstitious magnetism, so the mullah, by sheer force of character, can

HE WON SOLELY ON HIS NERVE

Bucket-Shop Man Went the Limit of Impudence.

"Nerve is the thing that wins," said the Board of Trade man to his companions at the club. "A man may have money, friends and influence, but if he lacks that sublime quality he is the biggest card in the deck. Look at the case of that man who went out of here just now. There is no one in town who lives better than he does and his investments furnish him the coin to pay for all he wants without ever drawing on the principal. A few years ago he was worse than broke. He didn't have a dollar or a friend—in fact, his sole capital consisted of his nerve and a bad reputation, and on the strength of that he started a bucket-shop. In a building close to the Board of Trade he found an office furnished for the business where another shop had failed, and he put up a stiff front and leased it until the 1st of May. It was then the middle of the month, so he got it rent free for the first two weeks. He ordered a ticker put in and hired a boy to mark the blackboard, as he did not have to pay for either service until the end of the week, and then he opened for business. People began coming in to look at the quotations, and after a while one man came up to the desk with $10 and bought 1,000 wheat. The market went right up and after there was a cent a bushel profit in the deal the customer came to the window to cash his ticket. This might seem like an awkward situation, but his beautiful nerve never failed. He sized up his customer, and instead of springing any four flush about a partner who had gone to the bank or anything of that kind he just said quietly: 'Here is the ten you put up. Now I haven't another dollar in the house, but if you will just go and sit down and look wise and happy like a man who has beat the game, why as soon as anybody else takes a whiff at it I'll give you your other ten out of what he puts up, but if you start roaring about being robbed no one else will go against the game and I don't see how you will get your ten.' Well, the customer was staggered, but he saw it was worth $10 for him to keep still, and so he waited. Pretty soon another sucker tried to beat the stock market and backed his judgment with $20. The first man didn't wait long to get his coin and then he stayed there the rest of the day to see how the thing came out. The market broke and nearly everyone who made a trade was on the wrong side, so the shop quit a little to the good that night, and it was a steady winner from that time on until the grand jury began to make things hot. Then he closed the place and has done nothing since but live on his income, and it is a big one too."

Too Smart.

"Do you," he asked, "believe there is anything in this theory of the transmigration of souls?" "Sometimes when I am in your company," she replied, "I am forced to believe that the souls of men may be transmitted to donkeys."—Cleveland Leader.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY

ville people had sense and feeling enough to release Mrs. Swenson and baby from the county jail, and every person who has the least spark of humanity about them will thank your attorney, A. E. Matheson, for doing what he did and will think of him as a friend to the needy and oppressed. Such acts are rare as a general thing unless there is a fee in prospect, but when we hear of a lawyer who does as he did we can only wish there were more of the same kind. We wish Mr. Matheson success in whatever he undertakes; he is deserving of it. William Gifford has sold his tobacco at a good price and like all of us is glad to see it delivered in the bundle and not be obliged to sort and pack it. Miss Alice Wright is spending a couple of weeks in Chicago. Charles Adolphson is quite sick, but we hope to see him out again soon. Mrs. Boden is quite sick at the present writing. She has been sick about ten days. Her husband, Albert Boden, is one of our most prosperous and successful farmers and a man who has worked his way up the ladder by hard work and good management. We hope to hear of her recovery soon. Robert Linick is spending a few weeks in Madison, being down as a juror for Dane county. Will Spicer is down with the grip. He says it is not a good time of the year to have it and he can not think of any time when it would be. C. Carlson has gone to Sparta to visit his sister. He intends to be absent about two weeks. All of us who owed the Edgerton Hardware Company have had a special invitation to settle up. We were sorry to hear of their failure on that account. We want all the people along the line to tell us the news, but they fail to do so, and therefore we are not posted this week. We learn that Jay Shaw is to put in a hydraulic ram and over 1,000 feet of pipe for Mr. Goldthorp, of Busseyville. He is to run the water from a spring to the dwelling house, then to the barn, where the overflow will run into Lake Koshkonong. Ex Mayor Heddles and family spent Sunday with Mrs. George Spike. Frank Farmer has a new corn husker and shredder. We believe he intends to run it by steam. Charles Nelson, the big tobacco grower and stock man, spent Saturday with friends in Edgerton. He says he has not sold his last year's crop yet. George Spiko, Jr., the popular Edgerton blacksmith, visited his old home here Sunday. Mrs. Page, who lives near Stoughton, passed through here a few days ago on a visit to her son and her old neighbors. She sold her farm here two years ago and bought near Stoughton. We are always glad to see her back among us. When she was a leader in all church and Sunday school work and we all missed her very much. On Saturday last there was eighty-seven loads of tobacco passed here on the road to Edgerton.

French Papers on the War-path. New York, Jan. 17.—French sentiment is once more being worked up against the United States on account of the Spanish war, says a dispatch to the Herald from Paris. Hostile newspaper criticism, which was temporarily shut down by the victories of Manila and Santiago, is now reasserting itself in consequence of the difficulties in the Philippines. One of the leading journals recently accused America of going to Manila like La Fayette and acting like William the Conqueror. The Temps, Debats, Liberte, Matin, and others all harp in this strain. They give prominence to anti-annexation speeches and magnify the fake reports of a mutiny of Gen. Otis' troops.

Vacancies at West Point. New York, Jan. 17.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says there are a number of vacancies at the military academy which members of the present Congress are entitled to fill. Some of these are from the second, third, tenth, eleventh and twenty-first districts of Illinois, the tenth of Iowa, the eleventh of Michigan, the ninth of Wisconsin, and the first of Oregon. These vacancies belong to the class which will enter the academy next June, and if they are not filled before the present Congress expires they will revert to members whose terms of office begin March 4 next.

Turkey Orders Krupp Guns. Constantinople, Jan. 17.—An imperial trade has been issued ordering the purchase of 162 Krupp field guns and 39,000 shrapnel shells. This is undoubtedly the outcome of the act of Emperor William on his return from the Orient in presenting the sultan of Turkey with a perfect model of the most modern Krupp field gun introduced into the German army. The German newspapers at the time commented approvingly on the emperor's shrewdness, which, they predicted, would result in Turkey sending a large order for guns to Germany.

Guns for New Battleships. Norfolk, Va., Jan. 17.—Portions of the mounds for the thirteen-inch guns of the first-class battleships Kearsage and Kentucky arrived at Newport News today. They will be put on board the vessels at once. The ships were to have been turned over to the government on Jan. 2, but unforeseen delays occurred and now the battleships says they will be completed July 1. The machinery of both vessels is about 95 per cent completed and the hulls 85 per cent.

HAD RHEUMATISM TERRIBLY

Could Scarcely Raise Herself After Stoop.

Suffered Fearfully With Pain, But Now Is Completely Cured.

Dr. Greene's Nervura Is the Wonderful Remedy That Cured Her.

William A. Bury, Esq., Grosse Isle, Mich., says:

"My wife, who is 67 years of age, has for seven years been troubled with rheumatism. She has been troubled with nervousness and occasional swelling of the hands, feet and face, with cramps in her neck and limbs. She could scarcely raise herself after stooping, which occasioned soreness of the muscles until thoroughly rested. She commenced using Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and has taken six bottles with the result that she is greatly benefited, especially in the pressure of the cords in her neck and breast which used at times be so great as to seriously interfere with breathing. She can stoop with ease to pick up a pin, her appetite has returned accompanied by better digestion, and she is much improved generally. I would say that my wife's improvement by the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is such as to astonish her friends."

Dr. Greene's Nervura is the sure cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, headache, etc. You can at any time consult without charge with Dr. Greene, 148 State St., Chicago, Ill., whose vast experience and great success in curing diseases makes a cure certain in your case. You can call or write to the Doctor.

Common Sense Cure. Remarkable Remedy Which is Bringing Comfort to Thousands of Sufferers. Probably half the people who see this article suffer from piles. It is one of the commonest diseases and one of the most obstinate. People live it for years and just because it is not immediately fatal they neglect it. Carelessness causes no end of suffering. Carelessness about so simple a thing as piles has often caused death. Hemorrhages occur from no apparent cause and loss of blood causes death. Hemorrhages occur during surgical treatment, often causing death. Piles are simple in the beginning and easily cured. They can be cured even in the worst stages, without pain or loss of blood, quickly, surely and completely. There is only one remedy that will do it—Pyramid Pile Cure.

It allays the inflammation immediately, heals the irritated surface and with continued treatment reduces the swelling and puts the membrane into good, sound, healthy condition. The cure is thorough and permanent.

Here are some voluntary and unolicited testimonials we have lately received:

Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of Piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure.

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says: I wish to add to the number of certificates as to the benefits derived from the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from piles for forty years and from itching piles for twenty years and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile Cure has effectually cured me.

Most druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure or will get it for you if you ask them. It is one dollar per package and it is put up only by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

Superior Evening Telegram: Governor Scofield's exceptionally strong message is making him talked of at Madison for United States senator in case of a deadlock.

An Able Document

Chippewa Independent: Gov. Scofield's message is a well written and able document, and if his suggestions are carried out by the legislature the people will have no reason to complain.

No Reasonable Criticism

Wausau Central Wisconsin: The message treats of practical affairs, is business like and clearly drawn and is such as to admit of no reasonable criticism.

Clear Common Sense

Beloit Free Press: Gov. Scofield's message is an able and exhaustive business document, abounding in that clear common sense in the discussion of state affairs that marks the production of a wise and safe executive. Upon all questions of present importance he entertains positive views which are fearlessly expressed, and offers suggestions that the lawmakers will not err in heeding. The message, in fact, proves Gov. Scofield to be all that his friends have loyally claimed him to be—an able, faithful and fearless executive.

Is No Disappointment

Superior Inter Ocean: Gov. Scofield has not disappointed the reform sentiment of his party in his recent message to the legislature. It is a document which recommends itself by its straight forward and common sense recommendations.

General Eagan said, after his famous testimony had been given, "it is now 'up to Miles.'" General Miles, however, seems to think that it is much below him.

IN SPANISH SILKS.

How an Actor Paid a Bet in Maine Dramatic Style.

It was the aftermath of the Pennsylvania defeat; it was a Spanish toreador in a barouche, serenading the actor's Dupleine, the newspaper, it was Allie Clark manfully paying his wages made with J. C. Marlowe of the same theatrical company, says the Boston Journal. Mr. Clark happens to be a Penn man, while Mr. Marlowe is a Harvard grad. The wager on Saturday's game was, therefore, for blood. The original terms provided that Mr. Clark's forfeit should be to walk the length of Washington street in foot ball costume. Mr. Marlowe, however, considered that his end was the harder and the terms were accordingly revised. With a pink and white complexion an inch thick, with gaudy Spanish silks floating in time to his dulcet tones, Mr. Clark had his barouche pulled up before the Journal office and intoned in his own peculiar manner, "Guess that will hold you." The other offices were visited and then the barouche headed for the Grand opera house again, followed by a queue of enthusiastic small Americans, all anxious for a shot at the Spaniard. Ailing people, who had stopped at the sound of the song to see what medicine the doctor was offering, went home in disgust. The members of the company, who had come to see the bet paid, in another barouche drove like mad for the theater to get made up for the matinee. It took courage to pay the bet, but it took a cool head to stand the guying the actor got from his comrades during the performance. Every one had a little jest to pass out and Marlowe had a merry twinkle of satisfied malice in his eyes all the afternoon. At the evening performance the fun with the unfortunate Penn man was renewed.

Lighter than Aluminum.

German experimenters have succeeded in producing an alloy of aluminum, the precise composition of which is not revealed, that is said to be superior in many respects to pure aluminum. The statement is made that this alloy, which goes under the name vestibulum, weighs only one-third as much, bulk for bulk, as aluminum. It is white, can be easily polished, and does not tarnish on exposure to the air.

She Saw It.

Wife (with a determined air)—"I want to see that letter." Husband—"What letter?" Wife—"That one you just opened. I know by the handwriting that it is from a woman, and you turned pale when you read it. I will see it! Give it to me, sir!" Husband—"Here it is. It's your milliner's bill."

The Bicycle Case.

He—"I was perplexed, Mabel, as to what I could give you as a birthday present, dear. Do you—er—think it would be too soon to offer you—er—an engagement ring?" She—"Perhaps people would think so. But you might venture upon an engagement bicycle, darling!"—London Judy.

Her First and Only Offer Accepted.
Miss Withers (suddenly awakening)—"O-o-o-h! D-o-o-y-o-u want to take my money?"

The Burglar—"Yes, and if ypr make der least sound I'll take you!"
Miss Withers (at the top of her voice)—"Murder! Police! Police! P-o-l-i-c-e!"—Puck.

Ideal Aerated Bottled Milk.

A new Dairy Wagon, of the latest make, with the words Ideal Dairy lettered on it will appear this week on the streets to supply the public with Aerated Milk.

J. F. Bemis, the proprietor, has secured the latest apparatus and appliances for handling milk in sanitary and most approved methods. Directly after milking the milk is aerated and bottled in clean, sweet glass jars, which have been thoroughly washed, scalded and sterilized. These Ideal jars have no rubber or tin top coverings to corrode, taint or sour the milk; after filling they are sealed air-tight with a new pulp cap which is made of wood pulp and is guaranteed not to affect the milk. The jars are always filled to the cap, thus preventing any shaking or churning, so that each customer gets an absolute uniform grade of milk. Another very important sanitary idea which this new Dairy has adopted is a system of coupon milk tickets that will allay the danger of a spread of contagious disease through the handling and carrying from house to house of the old style ticket. The tickets are used but once and each lot is new and clean. People who are particular about securing the best milk in the best manner will do well to engage their supply from the new Ideal Dairy. Orders can be given to the or a postal dropped to

HARDING CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

MAKES FULL CONFESSION TO THE POLICE.

Says That He Alone Robbed the Washington Barriage Saloon at Midnight on Sunday—Claims He Took About
$80.—Resides on North Jackson Street with Widowed Mother.

Benjamin F. Harding, of 159 North Jackson street, was placed under arrest this morning at 7:30 o'clock at his home by Chief Hogan on the charge of having burglarized the Washington Barriage saloon Sunday night at 14 North Main street. On the way to the jail Harding made a confession, stating that he alone committed the crime. He then took Chief Hogan to his home, and there secured a sack that contained $58.50 in cash.

Harding stated that he stole in the neighborhood of $80 in cash from the saloon, and not $110, as the saloon men claim, and aside from the money he returned he says he spent yesterday in the neighborhood of $25.

Since the burglary was committed Sunday night the police suspected local talent only, and they have by the capture of Harding made one of the quickest shifts in good detective work that has been carried out in this city.

Officer Brown yesterday heard that a man by the name of Harding had endeavored at several of the local saloons to get small money changed into bills. He seemed to be well supplied with silver, and at several places where he went he took great pleasure in displaying his wealth.

Officer Brown and Chief Hogan then started out on the case, and it soon developed that this same man Harding was at one time a bar tender at the Barriage saloon. That settled it with the officers, and they at once made up their minds that Harding was just the man they were looking for.

At 7:30 o'clock this morning Chief Hogan took a stroll up Jackson street, and as he passed the Harding residence the alleged burglar was cleaning snow from the walk. Chief Hogan at once broke the news to him, telling him that he was under arrest charged with the burglary of the Barriage saloon Sunday night. Harding looked as surprised as any man could under the circumstances, and at once denied any connection with the crime, stating that he knew nothing about it.

The chief and his prisoner then walked to jail, and while crossing the Court street bridge Harding said that in his mind "the jig was up," and that he might just as well confess that he was the guilty party. He then stated that at midnight Sunday night he entered the saloon by removing a portion of one of the front panes of glass which allowed him to admit himself. Once inside he could plainly make his way about by the glare of the fire in the stove. He first opened the drawer in the cash register, and then pried open the two drawers under the bar, taking all the money in sight. He stole nothing else. He then left by the rear entrance, closing the door behind him, which locked with a spring catch.

When taken to his North Jackson street home this morning he went upstairs and brought forth the sack containing $58.50 in silver.

Harding is a man about thirty years of age, and resides with a widowed mother, who is heartbroken over his downfall. For some time he worked at the creamery on South River street. He is now in jail.

Many Prominent People Are Victims of the Disease.

HENDRICKSON DIES AFTER LONG FAST

TOOK NO NOURISHMENT SINCE DECEMBER 1.

One of the Most Peculiar Cases Ever
Recorded in Local Medical History —Went Without Food for Forty-
Seven and a Half Days—Other Mortuary Mention.

Since last December 1 Rev. A. D. Hendrickson, of 219 Washington street, has not partaken of a single particle of nourishment. At 9:30 o'clock this morning he passed peacefully away after what has proved to the world to be one of the longest if not the longest fast on record.

He died as if in sleep, and about his bedside was his family, who had been summoned.

Rev. Mr. Hendrickson was a retired divine of the Methodist faith, and at one time was a most important figure in state work, having for sixteen years acted as superintendent for the state industrial school at Waukesha. On December 1 last he suffered a stroke of paralysis and was then obliged to take to his bed.

After a few days he practically recovered from the stroke, but found himself unable to partake of any nourishment. He subsisted on water at frequent intervals, but from the first day of his illness—December 1—he took no food in any form.

Deceased was 81 years of age, and leaves three children, Mrs. Herbert Lawrence, of this city, Miss Jennie and Clifton Hendrickson, of Nebraska.

Funeral services will be held from the home Thursday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Peterson, of Milwaukee, to officiate.

The remains will be taken to Milwaukee for cremation.

Irwin M. Harrington.

At an early hour last evening Irwin M. Harrington, secretary of the Rock River Cotton company, expired at his residence, 110 Madison street. He was born in Massachusetts, and had just passed his fifty-seventh year. He served during the war of the rebellion as a member of Company B, 117th New York volunteers. At the close of the war he married and settled in Cleveland, Ohio, remaining there until 1885, when he removed to Minneapolis, where he was in the employ of the Standard Oil company. In December, 1892, he came to Janesville, where he has since resided. Mr. Harrington was thirty-second degree Mason and a Shriner. He leaves an aged mother, three brothers, S. B. Harrington, of Lansing, Mich.; A. N. N. Harrington, of Okemos, Mich.; and E. N. Harrington, of Williamsport, Penn.; also his wife, Mrs. Mary A. Harrington, and two daughters, Frances Amelia and Nettie E. Mr. Harrington was a man whose genial disposition and true character had made for him many friends; the best being those who knew him best.

The funeral will be held at the family home, No. 110 Madison street, at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, and the service at the grave will be in charge of the Knights Templar.

Mrs. Mary Jane Haskell.

Mary Jane Eames was born in Ennis-killen, Ireland, in 1810, coming to America in early girlhood. For a number of years her home was in the state of New York. She was married to George Haskell and came to Wisconsin in 1852, settling near Janesville. She has been a resident of this city for nearly fifty years. Mr. Haskell died July 20, 1897. Mrs. J. E. Croft, who died in this city in 1881, was the only child by former husband, Mr. William Fitch. Her only surviving relatives are one brother, William Eames, of Ontario, Canada, and five grandchildren, Mrs. F. E. Gibson, of Webster, South Dakota; Mrs. A. H. Clark, of Edgerton, Wis.; Mrs. E. V. Bang and Misses Minnie and Jessie Croft, of this city.

Mrs. Haskell was a member of the First M. E. church of this city, and before she was laid aside by sickness was a faithful worker. She has gone to her reward.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. from the residence on North street. Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.

Austin Lowell.

The funeral of the late Austin Lowell was held at the family home on North High street today. Rev. R. L. Cheney, officiated, being assisted by Rev. W. A. Hall, of Court Street church. The pall bearers, all employees of the Lowell Hardware Co., and old friends of the departed, were Frank W. Douglas, Ed. Klenow, Bert Billings, W. G. Mayhew, E. K. Wheeler, and Charles Spencer. The interment was in Oak Hill.

Mr. Lowell was a man of unusually sunny disposition. He retained to the last his interest in young people and no others among his friends will mourn his departure more sincerely. His wife and two sons—W. A. Lowell, of Chicago, and Eugene A. Lowell, of this city—survive him.

Mrs. James Chamberlain.

From the residence of Dr. James Mills this afternoon, services were held over the remains of the late Mrs. James Chamberlain, conducted by Rev. Frank Richardson, pastor of the Methodist church at Shopiere, assisted by Rev. W. A. Hall and Rev. E. H. Pence, of this city. The interment was in the cemetery at Shopiere. The pall bearers were: H. Tarrant, Scott Smith, B. H. Smith, R. Kemmerer, A. Babcock and William Howard.

Mrs. A. Milne.

Mrs. A. Milne, mother of Mrs. Mary C. Henderson, the matron of the Palmer Memorial hospital, died suddenly at 8:15 o'clock last evening of heart trouble caused by an attack of the grip. Mrs. Milne was a native of Manchester, England, and had passed her seventy-eighth birthday. Of late she has resided with her daughter at the Palmer Memorial hospital. She had been a widow for thirty years, and of seventeen children, she has been called to mourn the death of all but two daughters, Mrs. Henderson, of this city, and Mrs. A. McGibbon, of St. Paul.

COUNCIL DOES LITTLE WORK

An Unimportant Session of the City Fathers Held Last Evening.

The meeting of the common council last evening was brief and unimportant. Mayor Thorngood was in the chair. All the aldermen were present except Messrs. Carpenter, Fifield and McLean.

The report of the board of education for December, showing a total expense of $4,000.02, was referred to the school committee, who reported it back as correct, and it was placed on file and ordered published.

The report of the municipal court for December was referred to the judiciary committee and was reported back as correct and it was received and placed on file.

Chief Engineer Spencer's annual report was presented and referred to the committee on fire and water, which asked for time to consider it, which was granted.

The mayor announced the appointment of Fred Little as a special policeman without pay, and the appointment was confirmed.

The usual lot of bills were allowed. The matter of the macadamizing of South Franklin street was brought up. Alderman Peters thought Contractor Watson should have his money and be allowed to finish the work in the spring as it only required a small amount of labor to complete it, and he should not be kept out of his money so long. The matter was reported to the committee to report at the next meeting of the council. The chairman of the committee and the city engineer were both absent last evening.

The first reading of the ordinance for the uniform charter was postponed till the next meeting, and the council adjourned.

To Consult the Cabinet.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The president's action in the case of Brig.-Gen. Charles F. Eagan will be determined at the regular meeting of the cabinet today. It is the understanding that the decision reached at the cabinet meeting will be announced immediately after its adjournment. Secretary Alger, while declining to discuss the case, said positively that no action had yet been taken. The indications are that a court-martial for the trial of Gen. Eagan will be the outcome of the meeting.

Fract About British Columbia.

The province of British Columbia has coast-lines on the North Pacific of nearly 1,000 miles, and an average width of over 400 miles. Its area is nearly 400,000 square miles. It is nearly four times as large as Great Britain and Ireland, and twice as large as either Germany or France, Austria-Hungary or Spain. It is the same size as Egypt or German East Africa, nearly six times greater than the state of Washington, nearly five times greater than the two Dakotas, Minnesota, or Idaho, and over three times greater than Montana or Oregon. This immense territory is intersected by four distinct and nearly parallel mountain ranges called the Rocky, Gold, Coast and Vancouver ranges.

Found Wanting.

A clergyman preached a rather long sermon from the text, "Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting." After the congregation listened about an hour, some began to get weary and went out; others soon followed, greatly to the annoyance of the minister. Another person started, whereupon the preacher stopped his sermon and said: "That is right, gentlemen; as fast as you are weighed, pass out!" He continued his sermon some time after that, but no one disturbed him by leaving.—London Judy.

Invention Should Move the World.

A Chicago man has invented a machine for making dining tables revolve. It consists of a large lever which falls on a button, which causes a flange to work up and down, which causes a plug to drop out, which makes a hook clasp the table and bring about the desired results.

PAY A TRIBUTE TO FRANCIS MURPHY

BLUE RIBBONERS HAVE PLEAS-ANT REUNION.

Relate Their Experiences and Encourage Each Other—Send a Basket of Roses to Francis Murphy at the Hospital, Accompanied by an Address.

The Y. M. C. A. auditorium was well filled last Sunday by the Blue Ribboners of the city and their friends, gathered to celebrate the advance of the cause of temperance. Owing to a recent family affliction the president, Dr. James Mills, was absent, and Vice President O. H. Brand occupied the chair.

After prayer by Rev. A. C. Kempton, George Sanger, of Beloit, spoke briefly, giving the Murphy movement his cordial endorsement.

Quite a number of the members of the club gave short talks, mainly relating to their personal experiences, after which Rev. Mr. Kempton moved that the secretary be instructed to buy one dozen of the best roses in the city to be sent with a note of kindly love to Mr. Murphy. The motion received many seconds and was heartily and unanimously carried.

The roses were accompanied by the following address:

"Our Beloved Leader—The meeting of the Francis Murphy Temperance League, held at the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday was so helpful and encouraging, so full of promise of a bright future for many lives that for years have been dragged through the darkness and despair that is the lot of the drunkard, that it was an inspiration to all who attended. It was this expressed wish of the Blue Ribboners thus assembled, that some message be sent from this meeting to him, who under the guidance of the Almighty Father, had brought this almost unbelievable blessing to this city, and whose name was so frequently mentioned in words of the fondest love and deepest gratitude, and so to you, our beloved Francis Murphy, we send these roses, God's sweetest messengers of love and peace, hoping that every dainty petal and every graceful leaf will tell you the story of the constant and abiding love of the many people in Janesville to whom you have been so precious a blessing. If there are thorns to these roses let them remind you of the pain and bitter suffering that you have removed from many a home, and long after the roses shall have faded may the memory of them linger with you to tell you of the heartiness of our appreciation of the debt which we owe you and which we can never pay. Our thoughts, our sympathies and our prayers are with you as you lie on your sick bed away from your loved ones, but dear to many loved ones who have been won by your great heart. May God help you in his tenderest care and spare you to his other less helpful and more wayward children for many years to come. Yours most loyally,

"The Blue Ribboners of Janesville."

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

FUNERAL WAS IMPRESSIVE.

High Honors Paid to the Memory of Nelson Dingley.

PROMINENT MEN ATTEND.

The President and His Cabinet, the Diplomatic Corps, and Supreme Court Justices All Present in the House—The Body Taken to Maine for Burial.

Washington, Jan. 17.—A state funeral almost majestic in its impressiveness was given the late Representative Nelson Dingley Monday in the house of representatives, where he has so long been such a commanding figure. The remains were taken from the Hotel Hamilton to the capitol at 10 o'clock and were borne into the hall of representatives by a squad of police under the direction of Sergeant-at-Arms Russell. The casket was placed on a bier in the area in front of the marble rostrum of the speaker, and for an hour the public, which would have no opportunity to witness the official ceremonies later, was allowed to view the remains as they lay in state.

Speaker Reed called the house to order when the members had assembled. The clerk read in full the resolutions adopted on Saturday after the announcement of Mr. Dingley's death. The clerk of the senate announced the passage of similar resolutions by the senate.

Immediately thereafter the vice-president and the senate entered the chamber in a body and were followed by the diplomatic corps, with whom came the members of the Anglo-American commission, of which Mr. Dingley had been a member. Then followed the chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court, in their somber robes, and they in turn were followed by the president with his cabinet, who took places immediately to the right of the casket.

A deep hush fell upon the assemblage. Suddenly out of the loft in the rear of the press gallery the notes of an organ echoed through the hall. It was the first time in the history of the house of representatives that music had been heard in it. A quartet sang impressively "Crossing the Bar," the beautiful poem by Tennyson.

The services were conducted by Rev. S. M. Newman of the First Congregational church of this city, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Couden, chaplain of the house.

When all had departed save the members of the house, Mr. Boutell (Maine) moved that the house adjourn as a further mark of respect. The motion was adopted, and accordingly at 12:55 p. m. the speaker declared the house adjourned. The senate held no session for the transaction of business. When the body convened at 12 o'clock it proceeded at once to the house of representatives to attend a body the funeral of Mr. Dingley. At 1 o'clock the senate returned to its chamber, and at 1:07 p. m., on motion of Mr. Allison, adjourned until today.

The body lay in state in the hall of the house until shortly before the time for the departure of the special train which conveyed the remains and the party to Lewiston, Me.

Fast Mail Hits a Freight.

Ashtabula, O., Jan. 17.—The fast Lake Shore mail train, No. 35, telescoped a freight here Monday, smashing the engine, the caboose and six cars of the freight and causing much delay. Great loss of life was narrowly averted at the point where the Ashtabula disaster occurred in 1876. Passenger train No. 28 was crossing the bridge just as the fast mail telescoped the freight 200 feet ahead. The passenger train stopped just in time.

Otis Sends Favorable News.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Gen. Otis has been heard from again from Manila, and the contents of his cablegram were so reassuring as to the situation there and at Iloilo that the officials here have come to accept without question the correctness of his statement that the critical stage is past and that he has control of the situation.

Floods do Much Damage.

Lyons, Jan. 17.—During the storms of the last few days the Rhone and its tributary, the Saone, have risen and overflowed their banks, causing damage that will run into the millions. Above and below Lyons the country is under water, boats have been torn from their moorings and wrecked, and five persons have been drowned.

Likely to Meet in Brussels.

Brussels, Jan. 17.—Persistent rumors circulate in diplomatic circles to the effect that the conference of the powers in the interest of the checking of the armaments of the nations will be held next spring in Brussels, instead of at St. Petersburg. The London Times and the Daily Mail also have advices confirming the rumor.

Urge Hopkins' Appointment.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The Illinois representatives in congress paid their colleague, Mr. Hopkins, a marked compliment by unanimously urging his appointment upon Speaker Reed as chairman of the ways and means committee, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative Dingley.

YESTERDAY'S MARKETS.

Quotations on Chicago Board of Trade—At Other Points.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—If talking it down could have broken the wheat market today it would have been smashed into very little bits, but the people who were most vociferously bearish were afraid to back their expressed opinions for more than 1/4c or so decline. On every moderate setback there were buyers for both, longs who wished to increase their holdings and shorts who wanted to obliterate their record; and consequently after many vicissitudes May wheat closed at 1/4c advance. Corn followed wheat and made an equal gain per bushel; oats closed without change and provisions slightly higher.

Chicago Live Stock Markets.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Arrivals of cattle at the start this week were barely up to the estimate and trade had brisk current from the outset, with prices strong to 10c higher than late sales last week. More hogs and sheep came than expected, but the morning trade in hogs was active at 5c advance on the range of Saturday's early sales, and although weakness prevailed later the average cost of droves stood slightly higher than at the close last week. Sheep sold at steady prices and lambs, though slow sale, were only a shade lower, some of the best selling fully steady. Today's run was estimated at 13,500 cattle, 40,000 hogs and 20,000 sheep, against 18,205 cattle, 29,645 hogs and 14,696 sheep for the opening day last week and 18,827 cattle, 39,201 hogs and 17,824 sheep for the same day last year.

NOT READY FOR OPERATORS.

Miners at Pittsburg Fail to Complete Their Business.

WANT MEETING POSTPONED.

Mine Owners Are Likely to Refuse to Delay the Discussion—Anti-National Expansion Resolution Defeated in the Convention.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—The miners' convention adjourned for the day Monday without having finished any of the business for which it was called together, and which it was supposed to discuss with the operators today. The scale committee has not reported on rates of wages to be demanded, on motion whether run of mine or screen system shall be adopted, or on wages of drivers and day laborers.

The operators met and notified the miners that they would insist on the joint convention beginning at 2 p. m. today, whether miners are ready or not. Of the 600 operators in Illinois 243 are here, a large delegation, and one of the Illinois operators said he expected there would be a big fight before all questions could be adjusted, as the number of varied interests represented here now make the situation complicated. The operators from Illinois, Indiana and Ohio held separate caucuses. Mine owners from Hocking Valley (Ohio) district will not be represented at joint convention.

A signal feature of the morning session of the miners' convention was the defeat of an anti-national expansion resolution.

Some unimportant amendments were made to the constitution. A resolution in favor of the means of production, exchange and distribution being held in common was defeated by a vote of 163 to 92.

After appointing a committee to confer with the operators and have the date of the joint convention changed to Wednesday the convention adjourned until today. The result of election of officers has not yet been determined.

WILL BALLOT TODAY.

Legislatures in Several States Take Initial Vote for Senators.

The first ballot for United States senator will be taken today in Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Washington, Nevada, Utah and North Dakota.

Senator Quay is at Harrisburg, and has taken personal command of his forces. He needs fifteen votes to elect. "Boilers" to the number of fifty-five are pledged to vote against him until the courts clear him of the charges of conspiracy. Quay managers say they will secure all additional votes needed from anti and democrats.

D. E. Thompson, in Nebraska, claims to have enough votes to elect. Opponents deny this, but give him credit of twenty, and say he will lead the vote on first ballot.

In Utah, Judge King and Judge Powers lead, with the chances favoring the former, he being a Mormon.

Senator Stewart of Nevada is conceded nineteen votes, but Congressmen Newlands claims to be able to deadlock the legislature and name a compromise candidate.

Senator Cushman K. Davis will be elected by the Minnesota legislature to succeed himself.

Clark, in Montana, has gained two votes, and Conrad, Marcus Daly's man, lost one.

In Indiana the formal ballot for senator will be taken on Wednesday.

Wisconsin republicans will caucus on Wednesday. The contest will be between four or five prominent aspirants for the office.

In North Dakota the first formal ballot is not expected to differ from the caucus vote, in which Congressman Johnson received thirty votes.

Exports Far Exceed Imports.

Washington, Jan. 17.—During the calendar year 1898 the United States exported $621,260,535 more of merchandise of all sorts than it imported, or a gain in excess of exports over 1897 of $264,146,719. BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

BREAKING IT GENTLY.

Below a Prize Magazine Story Very Much Boiled Down.

"Is this where Mrs. Sadsby lives?" asked the bearded stranger.

"Yes, sir," replied the woman standing in the door of the cottage.

"Wife of Andrew Sadsby, who went to sea several years ago and was supposed to have been lost?"

"Yes, sir."

"Madam, I bring you news of your husband."

"Is he alive? Oh, is he still alive?"

"Perhaps it would be hasty to say that. But—"

"What do you know of him? Tell me quick!"

"That's what I am trying to do, ma'am. Six weeks ago your husband, Andrew Sadsby, was found on an island in the south Pacific. He had been shipwrecked and cast ashore. For years he had lived there, subsisting on shellfish and bananas, with an occasional coconut, and—"

"Isn't he coming back?"

"I cannot venture to give you any information yet as to that. You must prepare yourself, ma'am, for—"

"He is sick! He is dying!"

"At the time he was found, to tell the truth, he was sinking rapidly."

"And then he— Don't keep me in suspense!"

"I won't, ma'am. He was sinking rapidly, as I said, but he sank because he was diving for pearls. He came up again. Diving for pearls is a highly profitable occupation. Your husband, Andrew Sadsby—his first name, I think you said, was Andrew—"

"Yes! Yes!"

"Your husband, Andrew Sadsby, had spent a considerable portion of his leisure in diving for pearls. You will understand that he had inevitably a large amount of unoccupied time on his hands. He became an expert at pearl diving. At the time he was found he had accumulated a large, I might say a very large, collection of valuable pearls, and as his facilities for disposing of them were naturally limited he has them all yet. The rest is soon told. He paid his passage to his native land with pearls, he turned them into money in New York city, he took a train for his old home, and—Susan Jane, don't you know me?"

"Andrew!" she shrieked.

The next day he had his beard removed, and his faithful wife recognized him.—Chicago Tribune.

Not Mining Matters.

"I'll tell them," said the messenger, "that what you want is to be duly recognized by the Americans."

"Don't you tell them anything of the kind!" exclaimed Agnaldo. "I don't want to be merely recognized, I want to be invited to come right in, and make myself at home and be an honored guest with more privileges than a rich relation. That's what I want."—Washington Star.

Overruled.

"Don't you believe in the policy of expansion?" asked the man with the prominent ears.

"Oh, yes!" replied the man with the high cheek bones. "But what's the use? My wife won't live anywhere but in a flat."

And he crossed his legs from force of habit. He took up less room that way.—Chicago Tribune.

No Chance Now.

"If I were only small," sighed the big man.

"What's the matter with your size?" asked the man of medium height.

"Oh, I'm all out of date," answered the big man. "The girls are all getting so independent that every one of them insists upon marrying a man small enough for her to manage."—Chicago Post.

One Way of Looking at It.

Spinster (of uncertain age).—Well, I must say that I consider persistent bachelorism as the incarnation of selfishness.

Young Bachelor.—Humph! Well, yes, I suppose the enjoyment of luxury is always more or less selfish, but surely it is better to be selfish than foolish.—Ally Sloper.

Thoughtfulness.

First Citizen.—So Captain Zollercraft has discovered an island where all varieties of the most delicious foods grow spontaneously, and he says he has been living on the fat of the land right along. We ought to do something in his honor.

Second Citizen.—That's so. Let's give him a dinner.—Boston Transcript.

A Legal Necessity.

She.—Let me see. You were admitted to the bar three months ago. I suppose that you are practicing now?

He.—Yes, economy.—Detroit Free Press.

Not Internally Affected.

"I like to meet those long haired literary men."

"Why?"

"They always have more sense than you expect to find after looking at them."—Chicago Record.

Not the Same Thing.

"It is said that the queen of Holland is devoted to dramatic art and takes the deepest interest in amateur acting."

"Oh, there must be some mistake.

She can't hardly do both."—Chicago Post.

Two Views of the Case.

"No. I do not think she will marry again. She vowed on the day he was buried she would not."

"Ah! Thinking about it already, was she?"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

At the Rialto.

First Thespian.—Why did you play "Tribby" so often last season?

Second Ditto.—Out of consideration for the leading lady—her shoes wore out!—Meggendorfer Blatter.

Everything Went.

"They say Dobbins' wife has a mania for giving away everything."

"Yes. I heard she couldn't even keep her temper."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Compensation of Adversity.

Richly.—I wish I were you.

Poorly.—For goodness sake, why?

Richly.—Why, you can have the fun of proposing to every girl you meet and be sure of being refused.—Metropolitan.

Arcades Ambo.

"I am proud to say," exclaimed the bronzed young man with the bandages, "I stormed the heights of San Juan with our boys of the Seventy-first."

The other, grasped him by the hand. "And I," he said, "George—I stuck steadfastly to the New York baseball team all through the season."

The truest heroism is often unrewarded.—New York Journal.

The New Treatment.

Mr. Muchblest.—Yes, doctor, I have a frightful cold. But what did you say was your special method of treatment?

Physician.—We strike at the cause or origin of the trouble.

Mr. Muchblest.—That's odd. Anyhow you'll find the baby in the other room.—Brooklyn Life.

She Did.

"Do you favor an Anglo-American alliance, Miss Scaddis?" asked Lord Mudbanks.

"Oh, your lordship," replied Miss Scaddis, blushing, "but this is so sudden! Still, you may see papa."—Detroit Free Press.
